THE STATE SHOOT.

Rice, of Wheeling, Won the West Virginia Individual Championship. The Merchandise, Event the big Attraction To-day.

The second day of the meet of the West Virginia State Sportsmen's Association yesterday was productive of better shooting. The weather was ideal, and the traps worked perfectly. The meet closes with to-day's events. Next year it will be held in Charleston, which fact was decided on at a meeting of the association last night, at which officers were elected as fol-

BASE BALL COMMENT.

Wheeling's team opens a series at Youngstown to-day, and the fans are hoping the team will take on a brace, and win a game or two before returning for games next week on the home grounds. The failure of the club to grounds. The failure of the cub to make a respectable showing at New Castle is most exasperating, but of course it is the fortune of war-or of base ball—and the tide may turn today at Youngstown. Bammert ald not play yesterday, for some reason not known here.

Babb has signed with Fort Wayne, and it is said he will replace "Count" Kuchne at third base.

Wheeling is at the tail end, and the town has but 20,000 people, yet the games are attended by twice the number that attend here. And the West Virginians have to walk to the games as well on account of the street err the up.—New Castle Courant-Guardian.

The above is going the rounds of the Inter-State circuit, and is doubtless credited by the scribes who publish it. That it finds republication in any sheet or credence with any serble is a commentary upon monumental ignorance. Anyone who doesn't know that Wheeling proper has 40,000 population, and that if it were not for a little thing like a state line the city's population would be between 80,000 and 100,000 ought to engage in most anything except showing his ignorance in the public prints.

The first of a series of two games of base ball between the West Virginia base ball between the West Virginia University and Waynesburg College teams was played here this afternoon. The university won by a score of 12 to 8 in a game devoid of any extraordinary features wave the work of Me-Whorter, both at the bat and in the field. His two home runs drove in half of the university tallies. Horner and Shelby formed the university battery, and Smith and Eddie for Waynesburg.

PITTSBURGH -WHEELING RELAY May be Arranged by the Y. M. C. A.'s of the Two Cities.

Physical Director E. J. State, of the Wheeling Y. M. C. A., is now endeavoring to interest the associations at Pitts-burgh and Little Washington in the proposed bicycle relay race from proposed bleyele relay race from Wheeling to Pittsburgh and return, and the prospects are very good.

If the race is arranged, the riders from Wheeling to Pittsburgh will carry a news dispatch from the Intelligencer to the Pittsburgh Press, and those on the return trip will bring a special relay dispatch from the Pittsburgh newspaper to this paper.

THE JEFFRIES CARD. Large Sale of Tickets for the Banner Pistic Attraction.

There will be no increase in the prices to-morrow night at the Metropolitan club, despite the fact that Jeffries has club, despite the fact that Jeffries has been showing in only the larger cities, and to high priced audiences. The club has guaranteed the champion a stiff sum to spar here, and in addition will put on another banner attraction, which will bring together Oscar Gardner and Joe Hopkins for the fourth time. Hopkins is in Youngstown, but will arrive here probably to-night. He and Gardner are matched for ten rounds.

and Gardner are matched for ten rounds.

The Jeffries combination shows in Pittsburgh to-night, and Smoky City sports will attend in abundance. The champlon spars with his brother, Jack Jeffries, Billy Delaney, Tommy Ryan and Jim Daly, going six rounds altogether. The champlon's favorite punches, etc., will be flustrated. The opportunity to see "the only underested heavy-weight," will be taken advantage of by sports from outside towns, and large numbers of seats have been reserved, in response to inquiries from Sistersville, Steubenville, Little Washington and Mannington. Reserved seats have been put on sale at Oscar Gardner's, Bader & Maurer's, Winder & Parker's and the White Front cafe.

As the vitascope pictures of the Fitz-simmons-Jeffries fight were failures, owing to insufficient light, this fact will further Increase the attendance tomorrow night.

BENWOOD NEWS.

Local Happenings of Importance in a tle Washington, Tuesday night, was freely commented on yesterday and it was condemned vigorously by the best citizens. Mr. Caldwell is an old man and the mob might have assaluted him fatally were it not for John James' plucky interference. Mr. James was the hero of the hour yesterday. Mr. Caldwell had recently returned from St. Palu, Minn., and had been in Wheeling only a few hours. He was on his way to visit a brother-in-law Friend Cox, at Moundsville, and the non-union conductor put him off the Wheeling car, on McMechen street, which aroused suspicion in the minds of the mob. Mr. Caldwell's mouth was cut where a drunken bully hamered his lips against his teeth. He is a man well up in years. Marshall Furbee arrived shortly after the affair was over.

Benwood Elks are members of either the Moundsville or Bellaire lodges and will be very much in evidence in the parades in Wheeling next week. White rousers, white hats and tri-colored umbrellas will be the Bellaire lodge's uniform, and Cameron lodge, it is said, will show up fine. The most recent Benare Will Schad and Charles Springer, who joined the Moundsville lodge.

William Carpenter, who died yesterday morning at his home at South Wheeling, was sachem of Blazing Arrow tribe of Red Men, and a member of Benwood lodge, A. O. U. W. His funeral to-morrow will be largely attended. The members of Benwood lodge No. 3, A. O. U. W., and Blazing Arrow tribe, I. O. R. M., are called to meet at their lodge rooms on Friday morning to attend the funeral.

The money will come from the $3,500 paid by the Benwood Southern to the city to square up on its franchise. The people in the lower part of town have been anxious for the paying and will be delighted to learn that it is almost a certainty.

Some criticism is being indulged in of the practice of blowing the lower steel works' whistle, as a summons that a pasenger is to get off a Wheeling car This summons brings a big crowd on the scene in a Jiny. It is said the watchman at the steel works refused to let Mr. Caldwell's wounds be washed at the mill.

Funeral of Congressman Danford Occurred Wednesday and

WAS ATTENDED BY HUNDREDS

Of his Admirers and Constituents from all Parts of the Sixteenth District-The Congressional Commit tee Composed of Representatives Grosvenor, Taylor and Van Voorhis Description of the Services

The funeral of Captain Lorenzo Danford was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of his son, William, in St. Clairsville. Preceding the services, the Grand Army post, numbering sixty-four, and over fifty mem-bers of the bar, headed by the post drum corps, marched to the residence, where the services were conducted by Rev. S. Balph.

The floral tributes were elaborate, being contributed by the bar and friends, Six soldiers, members of the captain's company, were guards of honor, and walked on either side of the hearse. They were W. J. Vance, Eberly Judkins, H. W. Bigley, J. T. Mercer, Samuel Hilles and G. W. McMasters.

The attendance was very large and nearly all the postmasters in the district were present, besides many prominent men from a distance, among whom were Congressman C. H. Grosvenor, of Athens; R. W. Taylor, of Lisbon, and H, C. Van Vorhis, of Zanesville, who were a committee from the national house of representatives to attend the funeral. J. M. Kenney, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the house, and James L. White, eashier of the house, were also present.

Others present from all parts of the Sixteenth congressional district, were the following:

Carroll county-Senator Eckley, Judge Fimple, Sheriff McCoy and Judge De

Jefferson county-Messrs, J. J. Gill John M. Cook, J. F. Dunbar, E. E. Erskine, Judge Miller and about twenty others Harrison county-General D. A. Hol-several others. The services at the grave were conducted by the Grand Army post which the post commander, J. M. Rees, paid a high tribute to the departed comrade, and it was agreed by all present that the service was a very impressive

The pall bearers were Judge I. H. Gaston, Newell K. Kennon, A. C. Dar-rah, L. E. Emerson, John Patterson and John R. Gow.

Many telegrams of condolence from Congressman Danford's associates in the house, and public men generally with whom he was acquainted, were re-ceived by the family. Judge George K. Nash was unable to be present, being an attorney in a case in Baltimore. Tele-grams were received by the family from Senator Boise Penrose, of Pennsylva-nia; Congressman Dovener, of Wheeling, who is in St. Louis, and Senator Joseph B. Foraker,

There was a vast crowd in town in the afternoon for the funeral, and they came in from all over the county by train and carriages. St. Clairsville has not seen such a concourse of people on a like occasion. The banks and business houses closed, proprietors and employes attending the funeral in a body. Congressmen Grosvenor, Van Voorhis and Taylor were driven to Bridgeport last evening and left for their homes. Messrs, Kenney and White, the house of representatives officials, came to Wheeling, and departed at midnight for Washington.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

The muddy water which the citizens of Martin's Ferry were compelled to use yesterday afternoon was due to the water main burstings at a point inidway between the power house and reservoir in the morning, making it necessary to pump direct from the power house. A force of men were put to work yesterday afternoon, and everything will be running smoothly to-fluired. The process of the state of the state

Thieves visited the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening and broke open the tool chest belonging to Contractor W. T. Manning, securing several valuable tools. They then went to the residence og Rev. S. J. Boyle, where the refrigerator was emptied of its contents.

A crowd of young people picnicked at the Sister Islands yesterday after-noon. They went up on the steamer T. M. Bayne and returned on the fer-ryboat Conveyor. The outling was in charge of Dr. John Hervey and Charles K. Williams.

Burglans entered the grocery of Ja-cob Meyers, on Clark street, Tuesday evening. No money was secured, but two gold watches, a pair of spectacles and a number of eigars were taken. The entrance was made through a side window.
